THE PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Dear NAEBer:

Another day, another dollar. Oh, yeah. That's just Donley Feddersen's song now; not mine. Anyway, if you didn't hear Don in Columbus, or in Chicago, you'll want to read his book. And, if you did, you'll want to read it, too.

That's not a commercial. I'm just getting started. Don's on our 1955 Convention Committee. And, Al Partridge is chairman. Al says things are coming right along. More dope someplace else in this issue. I'll mention a couple of other items in connection with the convention.

George Jennings is in charge of the exhibits at the Del Prado. You'll want to save time for viewing the exhibits and if you have a good idea for an exhibitor, drop George a line.

Bully for ol' Region V. Region V members are coming early for regional meeting on Tuesday afternoon and evening before the national convention. Meeting has been set for the Fiesta Room, Del Prado Hotel. This latest dope from Regional Director Marguerite Fleming.

I understand that some other regions are considering making same or similar move. Remember, if you care to use Wednesday noon for that purpose, the only "free" luncheon or dinner period is that of Wednesday noon.

Understand Chairman Jim Miles is arranging for meeting of his NAEB Public Relations Planning Committee for late June, just prior to ACPRA convention at Drake Hotel in Chicago. NAEBer Stew Howe is chairman of arrangements for the ACPRA meeting. Lynn Poole, Joe Wright, Dick Rider, Colby Lewis, and others of NAEB circles are slated for program performances. NAEB will have an exhibit there, too.

The President is grateful to the many NAEBers who responded to the invitation in last month's letter -- the invitation to comment on needed constitutional and by-laws revisions. You'll hear more from us later, after others get their comments in. So far, so good. All helpful.

Earlier mentioned some committee work. Better tell you that we've changed name of Bill Harley's committee to TV Program Committee. Have asked Bob Schenkkan if he'd like to change name of his TV committee. Never a dull moment.

In keeping with agreement at Region II meeting in Atlanta, we've sent Earl Wynn a suggested form of agreement for NAEBer member stations to secure from program sources for purposes of broadcast on their own stations, or on a combination of stations such as the NAEB Radio Network. We'll include a copy either with this issue or the next.

One of NAEB's good friends is going to be absent from the country for about a year. Bob Van Duyn of the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, Associate Director of the Education Division, left at the end of May to spend a year in the Phillipines. We'll miss him.

The University of Illinois is losing a long-time friend of NAEB, too. Wilbur Schramm is leaving Illinois to go to Stanford University. Wilbur will be taking up his new duties at Stanford in September. We hope he won't lose his interest in NAEB, and we'll always appreciate all he's done for us in NAEB.

President's Page--II

How are things coming with you? You know, the Newsletter can always use good stories from you. Some of you are pretty good, and others of you are a bit negligent.

Well, I know this won't fill two pages the way they use small-sized type in Headquarters, but I'm about out of ideas or energy. Wags, go ahead.

Whatta ya going to do this summer? And, next fall? Plan for the NAEB convention in October.

Best regards to each and everyone of you.
